KVAFSU at A Glance

The Karnataka Veterinary, Animal and Fisheries Sciences University (KVAFSU) with its headquarters at Bidar started functioning on 1-4-2005 following Govt. of Karnataka Act No.9 of 2004 first published in the Karnataka Gazette Extraordinary on 23rd February 2004. The University was dedicated to the State on 17-1-2005 by His Excellency the Governor of Karnataka and Chancellor of the University. The KVAFSU which is 5th of its kind in the country mandated the development and advancement of learning and prosecution of research and extension in the field of Veterinary, Animal and Fisheries Sciences.

The University has seven colleges located at six different campuses offering degree programmes leading to B.V.Sc.; B.V.Sc. & A.H., B.Tech (D.Tech) and B.F.Sc. The Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Food Business is a new postgraduate Programme which commenced in the academic year 2010-11 where the students enrolling will secure an MBA (Food Business). In addition, KVAFSU offers a Master's degree in 24 subjects and a Doctoral in 21 subjects, in various disciplines of the Faculty of Veterinary, Animal, Dairy and Fisheries Sciences. KVAFSU has established linkage with many Universities abroad – viz. University of Minnesota, Purdue University, Kansas State University, Texas A and M University of USA, University of Taiwan and Bodo University, Norway for exchange programmes in teaching and research.

This MBA (Food Business) is one of the first courses of its kind to be offered by a Veterinary or Agricultural University in the country, the students will have tremendous job opportunities both within and outside the country including Banks and financial institutions, food and beverage industries, dairies, quality control laboratories, etc.

MBA (Food Business) 2025-26

1. Preamble

The Food Business Management Postgraduate Programme will aim at imparting management knowledge and skills with specific orientation to the Dairy, Livestock, Fisheries and Food industry. The Dairy livestock and fisheries sectors are relatively undermanaged despite their significant contribution to the economy. Professionalism in management needs to be introduced into the sectors to help in improved production and market promotion and penetration.

All courses and Projects undertaken in this programme will have a bias to the Food industry. The proposed course shall be known as Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Food Business. The Programme will cater to a gap in management skills in the field of dairy, livestock and fisheries sciences. The primary objective of the programme will be to understand the dynamics and complexities of the field of Food in the emerging global context and acquire professional skills in using appropriate management tools and techniques in the sphere of the Food business and Endeavor to achieve excellence to work with the stakeholders towards their economic benefits. It will help to enhance professionalism in the students in the field of management as applicable to the dairy, livestock, fisheries and food sectors and greatly improve their employability.

After the globalization of the Indian economy, all enterprises including dairy, food, fisheries and livestock enterprises are becoming fiercely competitive and the requirement for highly skilled human resources to man. The industry is becoming increasingly imperative. This programme in the sphere of dairy food management will be the first of its kind after the Institute of Rural Management (IRMA), Anand and the only one in south India. This is perhaps the only management programme in India that explicitly addresses the management needs of the Food sector.
